PEOPLE AND SOCIAL EVENTS

Social Features of National W. C. T. U. Convention.

Delightful social features are being planned for the delegates at the great W. C. T. U. national convention to be held in Nashville next week. Mrs. Hamilton Parks is chairman of reception, and the initial hospitality will be a reception tendered the delegates by Gov. Patterson from 5 to 7 o'clock Saturday afternoon, November 9. This will be the first large reception given in the gubernatorial mansion, and Mrs. Josiah Patterson will receive with Gov. Patterson. On the following Monday afternoon, November 11, at Belmont college a reception will also be tendered the delegates from 5 to 7 o'clock.—Nashville Banner.

Children's Party on November 5.

Masters Oscar and Paul Stutz, the little sons of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Stutz, have issued cunning little cards as follows:

"Oscar and Paul Stutz at Home,

Tuesday, November the fifth, nineteen hundred and seven, from five to seven. Five twenty-nine Jefferson street."

Attractive Halloween Dance.

Miss Helen Van Meter was the hostess of a delightful barn dance last night, given over the City Transfer stables of her father, Mr. C. L. Van Meter, in celebration of Halloween. It was a "spirit dance" and the guests were in sheet and pillow case. The hall was effectively decorated in pumpkins, and elder and doughnuts were served. The chaperones were: Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Elaborate Card Party for Guest.

Mrs. Clarence H. Sherrill entertained with a pretty card party yesterday afternoon at her home on Fountain avenue in compliment to her house guest, Mrs. J. J. Sherrill, of Chicago. The house was attractively decorated throughout in the colors pink and white, and the course luncheon emphasized the color motif. The first prize was won by Mrs. H. S. Wells in a cut with Miss Carrie Rieke. The lone hand prize went to Mrs. Hughes McKnight. Miss Helen Rippy, of Lawrenceburg, captured the guest prize. The guest of honor was presented with a handsome coral belt buckle. There were fifteen tables at cards and a number of visitors came in late for luncheon.

HUSBAND USES AX AND ACID TO MURDER WIFE.

Lawton, Okla., Nov. 1.—John Hopkins, of Kingston, Mo., is in jail here on the charge of murder, having killed his wife last night with a meat ax and acid. There has been considerable lynch talk, but the authorities appear to have the situation well in hand.

Mrs. Anne Hopkins, who was separated from her husband, came to Lawton several months ago and has been staying at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ed Galyon.

Hopkins followed her and last night, finding his wife alone in the house, made the attack. Acid was thrown into the woman's face and her mouth pried open and the burning fluid forced into her mouth.

During the attack Edgar Galyon, Mrs. Hopkins' nephew, entered and grappled with Hopkins, throwing him to the floor, where he lay until the police arrived.

Sheriff Hammond and eight deputies are guarding the jail and threaten to shoot if an attempt is made to take the prisoner.

HUSBAND SHOTS WIFE, HIMSELF AND HIS FRIEND.

Memphis, Nov. 1.—One of the bloodiest crimes ever recorded in the city of Memphis, and one which, by this time, has probably developed into a triple tragedy, was enacted at 4:50 o'clock yesterday afternoon in a rooming house at 81 Washington avenue, when J. B. Rutherford, husband of the landlady of the house, infuriated because divorce proceedings had been instituted against him, entered the place, shot his wife twice through the body, inflicting mortal wounds; sent a bullet crashing through the heart of Eugene H. Peete, a friend, who had attempted to prevent the shooting, and ended by sending the deadly lead through his own head. Both men are dead and Mrs. Rutherford is dying.

TENNESSEE ARMY SURVIVORS TO MEET AT VICKSBURG.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 1.—Upon invitation of the people of Vicksburg and the Confederate and Federal veterans residing in the southern city, the thirty-seventh reunion of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee is to be held November 7-8 at Vicksburg.

Gov. Vardaman, of Mississippi and Mayor Griffith, will welcome the soldiers. Gen. Fred Grant will speak on "The Vicksburg Campaign," and Gen. Stephen E. Lee, commander of the Confederate veterans, will address them.

SENATORS BY DIRECT VOTE.

New Jersey's Governor Signs Bill Providing for Popular Choice.

Trenton, Nov. 1.—Governor Stokes signed today a dozen bills passed at the closing session of the last legislature. Important among them were the measures providing for the popular choice of United States senators and for the nomination of candidates for office by direct vote of the people at the primaries.

Both were measures that had been vigorously contended for by the New Idea followers in politics, and they were finally passed on the last night of the session.

RICH DISH WASHER.

$65.204 Deposited in the Name of Thomas C. Yeakle.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—A certificate of deposit for $65,204 in favor of Thomas C. Yeakle, but recently a dish-washer in a restaurant, was filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court today as his share of the estate of his late uncle, George T. Cline. The amount is one-twentieth of the total realized by the executors under Mr. Cline's will from the sale of lands in and near Gary, Ind.

Yeakle was located only a few days ago in Indianapolis, where he was employed as a dish-washer in a restaurant. He was in great poverty with hardly clothes enough to protect him from the weather and he had no idea that he was an heir. He had been searched for for five years.

ONE WAS KILLED.

And Another Wounded By the Same Bullet.

Middlesboro, Ky., Nov. 1.—Sam Whiteside and John Brooks, two boys, playing together here today were the victims of a peculiar accident. Whitesides accidentally dropped a revolver from his pocket. It was discharged by the fall. The bullet first passed through Brooks' leg, shattering it and then entered Whitesides' heart, killing him instantly.
